

Fund Management Licensing and Registration

Fund Management Licensing and Registration

Singapore's success as an international financial center is premised on its robust supervisory framework and pro-business environment. Supplemented by an extremely attractive tax environment for budding businesses, Singapore's mature infrastructure and government support for the wealth management sector continue to be attractive to fund managers who intend on establishing a presence in Singapore. These factors have attracted leading financial institutions and global investors to operate with confidence in Singapore.

Fund Management continues to be one of the main Regulated Activities in Singapore, with approximately 900 Fund Management Companies in existence.
