

Animal Feed Manufacturing Business

Animal Feed Manufacturing Business

- The success of the dairy farming industry in the country completely depends on the availability of forages & concentrated feed in the locality.
- Currently, there is almost 50% deficit in the forages segment resulting in less milk production, higher production cost per litre of milk and bad animal health.
- There is a huge market potential to serve more than a million cattle only in one state alone.
- There is huge forage deficit in the eastern part of the country and as a result the livestock is less productive.
- Company has an existing client base / farmers who are desperately looking for both backward and forward integration.
- With more than 8 years of experience in this industry and with the collaboration with all the major international industry giants in dairy and milk processing industry, company has setting up one of India's largest silage manufacturing unit and dairy e-commerce business in Odisha.
- With an existing production capacity of 60,000 MT of silage in bales every year started, we will be one of the biggest producers in the country.
